said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and other the Premises are now worth to be Leased, if the same were truly and bona fide Leased or Demised at a Rack Rent, and according to the full true yearly Value thereof, without any respect had to the present Rents reserved for the same, if such Rents have been reserved upon such Leases or Estates made, for which any Fine or Income hath been Paid or Secured, or have been lessened or abated upon Consideration of Money laid out or to be laid out in Improvements, and without any respect had to any former Rates or Taxes thereupon Imposed, or making any abatement in respect of Reparations, Taxes, Parish Duties or any other Charges whatsoever, which said Sum of four and Twenty Shillings for the yearly Profit of every Hundred Pounds Value of all Personal Estates, as aforesaid, and four Shillings for every Twenty Shillings by the Year of the said true yearly value of all other the Premises shall be Assessed, Levied and Collected in manner hereafter mentioned, and shall be paid into the Receipt of Their Majesties Exchequer by four Quarterly Payments; The first Payment thereof to be made upon the five and Twentieth Day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Six hundred Ninety Three.

without respect to Repairs, Taxes, Parish Duties or other Charges.

To be Paid at Four Quarterly Payments. The First Payment the 25th of March, 1693.

And whereas many of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, Hereditaments and Premises intended by this Act to be charged with the Pound Rate, as aforesaid, stand Incumbred with or are subject and liable to the Payment of several Rent-Charges

Where Lands, &c. are subject to Rents Charges, Annuities, or other Rents.

Charges or Annuities Issuing out of the same, or to the Payment of Divers Fee-Farm Rents, Rents Service or other Rents thereupon reserved or charged, by reason Whereof the true Owners and Proprietors of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises do not in truth receive to their own use the true yearly value of the same, for which nevertheless they are by this Act charged to pay the full Pound Rate of Four Shillings for every Twenty Shillings of the true yearly value:

The Landlords and Owners to deduct 4 s. in the Pound for such Rents, which shall be allowed by the Persons Intituled to such Rents upon Payment of the residue.

It is therefore Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be Lawful to and for the Landlords, Owners and Proprietors of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments and Premises as are charged with the Pound Rate, as aforesaid, to abate and deduct and to retain and keep in his or their hands Four Shillings in the Pound for every Fee-Farm Rent or other Annual Rent or Payment Charged upon or Issuing out of the Premises, or any part thereof or thereupon reserved; And all and every Person and Persons, who are or shall be any way Intituled to such Rents and Annual Payments, are hereby required to allow such Deductions and Payments, upon the Receipt of the residue of such Moneys as shall be due and payable to them for such Rents or Annual Payments reserved or charged, as aforesaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better Assessing, Ordering, Levying and Collecting of the several Sums of Money so as aforesaid Limited ed and Appointed to be Paid, and for the more effectual putting of this present Act in Execution, all and every the Persons hereafter named shall be Commissioners of and for the severall and respective Counties, Cities, Burroughs, Towns and Places hereafter mentioned.

ers from acting in any other part of the County.

Direct Precepts to such Inhabitants, &c as they shall think convenient,

requiring them to appear at a Place & Time
not exceeding Ten Days.

Which said Commissioners so, as aforesaid, Nominated and Appointed, shall in the respective Counties, Cities, Boroughs, Divisions, Towns and Places for which they are appointed Commissioners respectively, meet together at the most Usual and Common Place of Meeting within each of the said Counties, Cities, Boroughs, Towns, Divisions and Places respectively, upon the fifteenth day of February, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred ninety and two, and the said Commissioners, or so many of them as shall be present at the First General Meeting, or the major part of them, may by their Consents and Agreements divide, as well themselves, as other the Commissioners not then present, for the Execution of this Act, into Hundreds, Lathes, Wapentakes, Rapes, Wards, Towns, and other Places within their Limits, Priviledged or not Priviledged in such manner and form as to them shall seem expedient (nevertheless not thereby to restrain the said Commissioners from acting as Commissioners in any other part of the County or Place for which they are Nominated) And shall direct their several or Joynt Precept or Precepts to such Inhabitants, High Constables, Petty Constables, Bayliffs and other like Officers, and Ministers, and such number of them as they in their Discretion shall think most convenient, requiring them to appear before the said Commissioners at such Place and Time (not exceeding Ten Days) as they shall appoint. And at such their Appearances, the said Commissioners shall open-ly ly Read or cause to be Read unto them the Rates and Assessments in this Act mentioned, and also openly declare the Effect of their Charge to them, and how and in what manner they ought and should make their Certificates, and how they ought to Proceed in the Execution of this Act, according to the Rates aforesaid. And if any High Constables, Petty Constables, Bayliffs, Inhabitants or other Officers or Ministers, to whom any Precept shall be Directed, shall Absent themselves without lawful Excuse to be made out by the Oaths of Two Credible Witnesses (which Oaths the Commissioners or any Two of them are hereby Impowered to Administer) or if any Person appearing shall refuse to serve, then every such Person so making Default, or refusing to serve, shall for every time of such Default or Refusal Forfeit and Lose unto Their Majesties such Sums as the Commissioners, or so many as shall be present, or the Major part of them being present, shall think fit, not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, nor less then Forty Shillings. And at and after such general Meeting had, and Charge given, as aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall take Care that Warrants be Issued forth and Directed to Two at the least of the most Able and Sufficient Inhabitants of each Parish, Township or Place within the respective Divisions, thereby Appointing and Requiring them to be Assessors of all and every the Rates and Duties by this Act Imposed, and shall therein also appoint and prefix a certain Day and Place for the said Assessors to appear before them, and to bring in their Certificates shall any Teller throw down any Bill whereby to charge himself with any of the said Moneys, until he shall have actually received the same.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That the Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer respectively, shall and are hereby required to keep the said Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds hereby Appropriated for Payments relating to Their Majesties Navy, as aforesaid, and the Account thereof distinct from all other Moneys and Accounts whatsoever; And that the Lord High Treasurer, Under-Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any of them respectively, do not sign any Warrant or Order, or do any Matter or Thing for the Issuing or Paying any part of the said Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds by this Act Appropriated for Payments relating to Their Majesties Navy, as aforesaid, to any person or persons other than the Treasurer of the Navy or his Deputy, and the Treasurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy, for the Uses aforesaid; Nor shall the Auditor of the Receipt draw any Order whatsoever for the Issuing any part of the said Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds hereby Appropriated, as aforesaid, to any person or persons, other than the said Treasurer of the Navy or his Deputy, and the Treasurer of the Ordnance or his Deputy, as aforesaid; Nor shall he Direct, nor the Clerk of the Pells Record, or any Teller make payment of any part of the said Appropriated Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds by virtue of any Warrant, or upon any any Order or other way or device whatsoever, other then to the Persons and for the Uses aforesaid, and to be so Mentioned and Expressed in such Warrant or Order.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That the Treasurer of the Navy, and the Treasurer of the Ordnance for the time being, shall keep such part of the said Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds Appropriated for payments relating to Their Majesties Navy, as aforesaid, by virtue of this Act, as shall be paid to them respectively, distinct and apart from all other Moneys; And the Treasurer of the Navy shall Issue and Pay such part of the said Sum as shall be payed in to him by Warrant of the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, or any Three or more of them; And the Treasurer of the Ordnance shall Issue and Pay such part of the said Sum as shall be payed in to him by Warrant of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, or any Three of them, mentioning and expressing in the respective Warrant, the respective Uses for which the same is respectively Issued and Paid, according to the respective Appropriations thereof, and Applying the same; Which said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, and Principal Officers of the Ordnance, are to follow therein the Order and Direction of the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, for Apportioning the same for the Payment of the Officers and Seamen, Stores, Provisions, Victuals and the Office of Ordnance, in respect to Naval Affairs, as aforesaid, in such

just and proportionable Distributions as may be most agreeable to the true Intent of this Act.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, or any of them, or principal Officers of the Ordnance, or any of them, shall not sign any Navy Bill or Warrant, or do any other Act or Thing for the Issuing and Paying any part of the said Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds so Appropriated by this Act, to any Use, Intent or Purpose whatsoever, other then for the respective Uses for which the same is Appropriated, as aforesaid, and to be so Mentioned and Expressed in such Navy Bill or Warrant.

And be it further Enacted, That if any of the Officers which are appointed by this Act to receive the said Sum of Seven hundred thousand Pounds, hereby Appropriated for Payments relating to Their Majesties Navy, or any part thereof, shall after the Receipt of the said Money, divert or misapply the same, or any part thereof by Virtue of any Warrant from the Commissioners of the Treasury, or from the Lord Treasurer, or other Superior Officers for the time being, contrary to the true intent of this Act, that then such Officer or Officers so diverting or misapplying the said Moneys, shall Forfeit the like Sum so diverted or misapplied; Which said Forfeiture shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of Their Majesties Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoign Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed; the one Moiety of which Forfeiture
